

Europe on the wrong track?

Cross-border work in rail

The ECJ judgement Dobersberger „Henry am Zug“

VIRTUAL Conference via ZOOM

Monday, November 30th, 2020

Time: 10:00 - 15:00

10.00 am

Welcome

Roman Hebenstreit, Chair of the trade union vida

Günter Blumthaler, Chair of the railway section, vida

10.15 – 12:00

Panel discussion of the legal experts

followed by questions from the audience

Moderation: Verena Kainrath, Der Standard

Keynote: Walter Gagawczuk, labour law expert of the Federal Chamber of Labour

Susanne Wixforth, head of unit in the Europe and International Department of the German Trade Union Confederation/DGB

Michaela Windisch-Graetz, Institute for Labour and Social Law, University of Vienna

Diana Niksova, Institute for Labour and Social Law at the University of Vienna

12:00-13.00

lunch break

13.00 - 14.45

Panel discussion of the practitioners

followed by questions from the audience

Moderation: Bettina Haidinger, FORBA

Research and Advisory Centre for the World of Work

Cristina Tilling, Head of the Working Group on Posting in the Europ. Transport Workers' Federation/ETF and representative on the Management Board of the Europ. Labour Authority

Walter Neubauer, labour law expert at the Federal Ministry of Labour, Family and Youth

Gerhard Tauchner, chairman of the locomotive service platform at vida and chairman of the central works council at ÖBB Produktion

Robert Zlaty, Deputy Chairman of the Hungarian Railway Union VSZ

14.45 - 15.00

Summary and outlook

Sylvia Leodolter, Head of the Department Environment and Transport at AK Vienna

Interpretation will be provided into German, Hungarian, English, Czech, Slovenian, French